

Fawn Brents

≈ Unfolding the Truth ≈

Seeds of Hope

When Fawn's son was called to Iraq, Psalm 126 brought comfort and peace through a difficult time. "Seeds of Hope" delivers encouragement and promise for believers going through uncertainty and sorrow. (45 minutes)

The Woman in Purple

This is a message of faith, woven around Jesus' brief encounter with a Canaanite woman from Phoenicia. A careful look at Matthew 15 and Mark 7 combine to tell "the rest of the story". It's a story of faith. It's a story about never giving up. It's about a woman who "kept on asking"! (30 minutes)

What Perfume Are You Wearing?

What does it mean to be the "fragrance of Christ"? The answer begins in the Old Testament with the Levitical priesthood and is further revealed in Paul's second letter to the Corinthians. The history of fragrance unfolds to present a fresh challenge to live a life that reflects the character of Christ. (35 minutes)

The Chocolate Chip Cookie Talk

Romans 8:28 is illustrated as Fawn makes cookies with a young child from the audience. Walk with Fawn through Deuteronomy 6, learning practical ways to teach your children spiritual truth through everyday events. With lots of personal stories and Scripture, young moms will leave encouraged and equipped to teach their children God's Word! (40 minutes)

Once There Was a Vineyard...

Beginning in John 15 and continuing in Isaiah 5, journey through Scripture to discover God's picture of the vineyard and His relentless love for His people. When all seemed lost, discover how the Messiah became the one who grafted Gentiles into the vine where they can abide in Him and bear fruit! (Two 30-minute sessions)

866.333.FAWN

fawnbrents@gmail.com

The House on the Hill

Fawn's personal story of how her family left the city to live on an 80 acre farm in Missouri. There's lots of humor, but the message is clear. It's a story of following God to places where you don't want to go and finding His best when you get there. (30-40 minutes)

It Just Gets Better!

As women grow older, their life experiences and knowledge of the Word combine to give them a unique place in the lives of younger women. A close look at Titus 2:8-12 will give women of every age a new perspective on the joy of friendship and a reason to invest in the lives of other women. (30 minutes)

The Top 10 Things Women Want in a Godly Husband!

Results from a survey of more than 60 women give husbands the information they need to understand women and what they long for in a marriage. Men are challenged to look at the character qualities from Scripture that will make it easy for their wives to love and respect them. (30 minutes)

Arise!

Deborah, a woman of courage who led Israel into battle, offers practical help in leadership. Is it possible for you to be the woman God designed, and still be the leader He's called you to become? Scriptural, insightful and perhaps surprising answers unfold from Judges 4 and 5. (35 minutes)

Found at the Well

Jacob's Well is the historic backdrop for this compelling story of what it means to reach our culture with a fresh approach to the Gospel—an approach that breaks through the barriers of race, gender, sin and religion. (35 minutes)

Book Fawn for your special event

Fawn Brents
866.333.FAWN
fawnbrents@gmail.com

Topics can be tailored for your unique audience and time frame.

